Applicants sought for Napa County Employee Relations Panel

NAPA – The County Executive Officer announces two openings on the Napa County Employee Relations Panel. The first review date of applications received will be on March 16, 2020. Recruitment will remain open until the vacancy is filled.

Hearing Panel Purpose: The Napa County Employee Relations Panel is established by Article III of Section 37A of the Napa County Policy Manual. The Panel is convened when needed and has the authority to hear and make recommendations to the Board of Supervisors on disputes as to what constitutes an appropriate representation unit, to hear and make recommendations on appeals to the Board of Supervisors with respect to the assignment of new classifications within representation units, to call for and declare the results of representation elections, to hear complaints of unfair employee relations practices and to recommend corrective action to the Board of Supervisors. The Hearing Panel consists of five Members, two members appointed by the Board of Supervisors; two members appointed by mutual agreement of the County's recognized employee organizations and a fifth member chosen by mutual consent of the four members. Two panel members shall serve for a two-year term; two panel members shall serve for a three-year term; and one panel member shall serve for a four-year term and length of terms shall be determined by lot.

Qualifications: Applicants should be individuals who have experience in the field of employee relations and/or personnel management and possess the integrity and impartiality necessary to protect the public interest as well as the interest of the County and its employees. Applicants must be Napa County residents.

Anyone interested in consideration for appointment must submit an application form. Application forms are available at the County Executive Office, 1195 Third Street, Suite 310, Napa, CA 94559, telephone (707) 253-4421 or online at <https://www.countyofnapa.org/1420/Committees-Commissions>.
