Introducing Bay Area Volunteers

Easily connect with organizations and businesses across the Bay Area — where together you'll make a bigger impact. Bay Area Volunteers is the place where you can create a custom personal profile, then find and engage with what matches your skills, interests, and the causes you care about. Improved, intuitive technology makes it easier than ever for you to give back.

Volunteers, it's FREE for you!

Any volunteer can create a free account in Bay Area Volunteers. Opportunities of all kinds are being added and updated each day by our growing community of organizations and businesses.

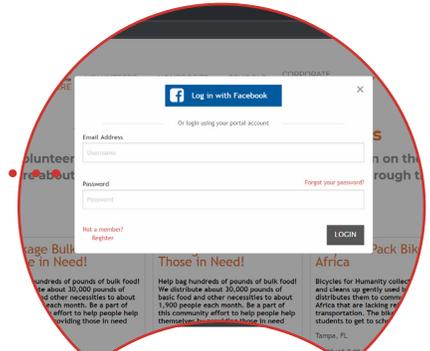

Find an Opportunity Now.

Follow the five easy steps on the back to get started today.

1

Create an account

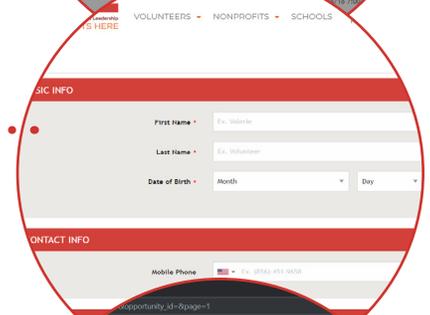

Click the “Login” icon. Selecting “Not a Member? Register” allows you sign up with just your email, or by using Facebook.

2

Customize your profile

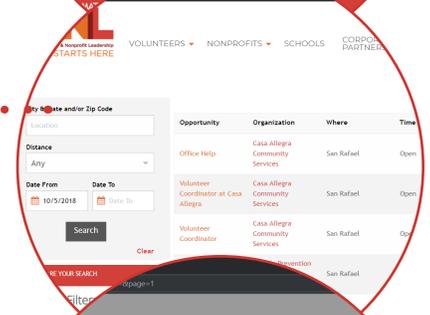

The more complete your profile, the better Bay Area Volunteers will be able to match you to your next opportunity!

3

Find opportunities

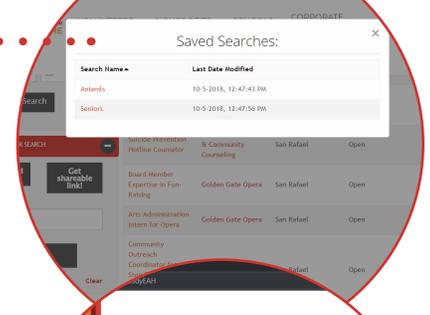

The “Find Opportunities” page offers advanced searching based on location, keyword, or interests.

4

Save your searches

“Saved Searches” provide a way for you to easily recall a set of search parameters — and even share with your friends, family, or colleagues!

5

Sign up! You're set to volunteer

When you find the perfect opportunity, click “express interest.” The managing organization of that opportunity will connect with you directly and you can start volunteering!

What difference will you make?
