PRESS RELEASE

NAPA DISTRICT ATTORNEY AND SENIOR DEPUTY ELECTED TO CDAA BOARD OF DIRECTORS

---

Napa County District Attorney Allison Haley announced today:

Napa County District Attorney Allison Haley and Deputy District Attorney Aimee McLeod were both elected to serve on the California District Attorneys Association (CDAA) Board of Directors for the 2021-2022 term. CDAA members are prosecutors throughout the state of California. Their mission is to promote justice by enhancing prosecutorial excellence through continuing legal education and legislative advocacy. In addition to offering seminars, publications, and extensive online tools, CDAA serves as a forum for the exchange of information and innovation in the criminal justice field.

Two of the nine statewide seats are now filled by Napa County prosecutors.

District Attorney Allison Haley has served Napa County as a prosecutor since coming to the office in 2005, holding prior positions as Deputy and Chief Deputy. She currently serves as the Co-Chair of both the Ethics Committee and the Legislative Committee for CDAA.

Deputy District Attorney Aimee McLeod has been a prosecutor for 14 years. She is currently a team leader of the General Felony Unit, specializing in arson and drug endangered children cases. Ms. McLeod was also a Deputy District Attorney in the San Diego County District Attorney's Office where she was assigned to special units for major narcotics and vehicular homicides. Ms. McLeod is excited about joining the Board, noting that "CDAA is the leader in the State for the legal training of prosecutors, and they are more important than ever as we adjust to changes in the criminal justice system at a rapid pace."

Any questions can be directed to Assistant District Attorney Paul Gero.
