LIST OF APPROVED AND ACCREDITED FOOD SAFETY CERTIFICATION EXAMINATIONS

Napa County Division of Environmental Health has provided this list of trainers for your convenience and does not represent an endorsement by this Department. Verify that the examination offered by the company is approved, accredited and fulfills the requirements for the food safety certification exam required by the California Retail Food Code. Locations and fees may vary, please call several organizations to find a class that best suits your needs.

Important note: Make sure you know whether you need the food manager certification or the food handler certification. When contacting a company, verify that it provides the certification you need for your job. If you have any questions, ask your district inspector.
